

Euroins Insurance Company AD is Bulgaria's leading general insurance company one of the. Euroins serves more than 1 million customers and is authorized to provide insurance services across all member states of the European Union under the EU freedom of services and freedom of establishment regimes.

Established in Bulgaria in 1998, Euroins Insurance Company AD is one of the country's first insurance companies and has been a licensed participant in the Bulgarian insurance market for more than 25 years. The company offers a comprehensive range of general insurance products and package solutions designed to cover a wide variety of risks and provide customers with reliable and comprehensive protection.

Since its establishment, Euroins has built a stable team of experienced insurance professionals whose expertise and commitment have contributed to the company's strong market position. Euroins is recognized among the leaders of the Bulgarian insurance sector and has been ranked as the leading Bulgarian insurer by premium volume in regional industry rankings.

With many years of experience, high-quality service, and a strong customer-oriented approach, Euroins provides tailored insurance solutions that meet the diverse needs of both individuals and businesses. The company combines professional expertise with innovative services to make insurance more accessible, convenient, and efficient for its customers.

Euroins has an extensive presence supported by a broad network of offices and a wide range of digital services. These solutions enable customers to manage their insurance portfolios conveniently and independently, providing greater flexibility and ease of access.

Euroins is part of Eurohold Bulgaria AD, a leading energy and financial group in Southeast Europe. Eurohold Bulgaria AD is a publicly listed company whose shares are traded on the Bulgarian Stock Exchange (BSE) under the ticker EUBG.

Through its strong market expertise, customer focus, financial stability, and commitment to delivering reliable insurance solutions, Euroins Insurance Company AD continues to be a trusted and established insurance partner for individuals and businesses across Europe.